New Fiction Series By Stephen J. Kristof

Wine Lovers Rejoice! New Fiction Book Series Pairs Perfectly with Wine

Stephen J. Kristof's "Short Stories to Enjoy with Wine" is the ultimate collection of fictional short stories and novelettes, written especially for readers who love wine.

This first book in the new series features 17 riveting stories that will arouse just about any reader. Diverse themes include steamy romance, time travel, fantasy, crime, lifestyles of the ultra-rich, contemporary family and work challenges, feel-good nostalgia and more. *The unique thing about this book is that every story relates in one way or another to wine!

This book should be at the top of the shopping list for every reader who loves wine. It's also the perfect gift for those hard to shop for wine-loving relatives and friends!

Author's Motivation: "The world has given us more than our fair share of stress in the last few years! We need to be kinder to ourselves; to give our minds and our moods a much-needed break. I wrote this book to give people permission to relax and enjoy some well-deserved freedom from all of that chaos! For many, there's nothing more relaxing than having a glass or two of wine while escaping with the help of some captivating fiction!"
